VOL. II. GLENDALE, LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CAL., SATURDAY, AUGUST 25, 1906. NO. 17

CITY TRUSTEES.

Members of board present: Watson, Anderson, Jennings.

Reading of minutes of previous meeting read and adopted.

Superintendent of Streets Sinclair reported having posted notices of vacation on Verdugo road.

Property owners on First street, Second street and Central avenue requested that the trustees establish grade on said streets.

Sealed bids for team work on city sprinkling cart were opened. T. C. Gillett bid $4.60 per day of eight hours, 65 cents per hour for overtime. S. Grant bid $4 for nine hours and 45 cents per hour for overtime. Regino Verdugo bid $3.75 per day of nine hours and 50 cents per hour for overtime. Mr. Verdugo being the lowest responsible bidder was awarded contract.

Demand No. 41 for salary of marshal for six months of $60, demand No. 42 for salary of G. B. Woodberry, amounting to $30, was allowed. Demand No. 43 for $120 by J. W. Cook was allowed. Demand No. 44 for $305.20 for legal printing by Riggs & McClure was referred to committee. Demand No. 45, Riggs & McClure, for $34 for job printing, referred to committee.

On motion, warrants were ordered drawn for payment of demands 11 to 17 and 19 and 20 inclusive. Demand No. 43, for purchase of city sprinkling wagon of Mr. Cook to cost $120 was on motion allowed.

City engineer reported that the map submitted by Mr. Iler for acceptance was objected to on account of there being a jog in B street. The map was referred to Board of Public Works for further consideration.

The matter of opening up Childs street was discussed by Mr. Watson of the board and the property owners along the proposed street. The objection of the property owners to the opening of the street is that they do not know what the expense of making this street will be and they object to the street being opened unless they have assurance that the city will take care of the storm water. Mr. Coker representing the protestants, said that there seemed undue activity on the part of a certain member of the board.

Mr. Watson of the board made a vigorous protest against any insinuation that there was collusion on the part of any member of the board.

Mr. Edwards made vigorous protest as to the intent of the board to open the new street.

Mr. Jennings deplored the seeming desire of the property owners to impugn the motives of the board.

Mr. Watson explained that the board could not guarantee anything along the intended street until the street is legally established.

Mr. Doyle said that he thought the opening up of a street along the proposed route would be a good thing as a straight storm drain could be made to nicely carry the water off from the district which suffers each year from the flood waters.

On motion of Trustee Anderson the city attorney was instructed to draw up a resolution giving the desired information whereby the property owners can become familiar with the proposed proceedings of the city trustees in regard to opening up Childs street, and to give an estimate of the total cost and indicate the assessment district for same.

On motion the street superintendent was instructed to take the necessary steps in erecting necessary stand pipes for street sprinkling purposes.

The map of the Glendalia Park tract was submitted for adoption and on motion was accepted.

OPENING OF THE EAGLE ROCK ELECTRIC CAR LINE.

Eagle Rock, Aug. 22.—At about 5:30 o'clock Monday morning the inhabitants of the peaceful little valley of Eagle Rock were aroused by the gong of an electric car as the first passenger car sped into the valley. As this car was due to leave Townsend avenue, which is the end of the line, at 6:00 o'clock, some of the ambitious people who wished to ride on this first car were required to leave before breakfast. Nevertheless there was a goodly crowd to take the early trip. The cars run every half hour, making the distance into Los Angeles in a little over 30 minutes' time. At present no through cars are run, so that it is necessary to transfer on to a Garvanza car, but this will probably soon be changed.

Throughout the day the cars were well loaded with people who were looking for home sites, and through the efforts of John G. Johnston Co. private cars were run, giving free transportation to many Los Angeles people who desired to see the beauties of this delightful place. A celebration had been planned by the improvement association and was carried out very successfully by the enthusiastic people who have been looking forward for months to this event. Mr. K. W. Cowan was in charge of the excellent display of fireworks, which was the opening of the festivities. The church and school house bells were rung for half an hour and a huge bonfire was lighted, which burned until morning. After all the fireworks had been set off, Mr. Gates was called upon to tell the people "how we got the car line." He was followed by Mr. P. W. Parker, who gave a short history of the valley for the last 20 years. After a great deal of cheering and applauding the crowd was quieted enough so that it could be announced that a load of watermelons was waiting to be disposed of. After enjoying a very sociable time along with the watermelons the crowd dispersed at about 10 o'clock, leaving the fire still burning. A large crowd was out from Los Angeles despite the fact that the morning paper had announced that the celebration would be on Tuesday instead of Monday night.

Real estate owners are not anxious to dispose of their property; nevertheless there has been several transfers in large villa lots, all of which have $3000 or more building restrictions.

Down and Out

The above picture is an apt illustration of what "happened" to a certain "bird" at the Republican convention. The victorious bird represents the well owners of the San Fernando valley and the dead "bird" represents a certain would-be judge and shows his condition, politically. This would-be judge is forever dead politically, and his defeat at the convention was a just rebuke for his unjust and inhuman decision in denying the people the right to use the water in their own wells. It is to be hoped that this fellow's fate may be a warning to others who think they can trample upon the rights of the people with impunity. Truly, the people have cause for rejoicing because of this man's defeat. Buckle on your armor, good people, and go forth to a greater and more complete victory.

The Los Angeles County Republican Convention, which met at Venice on Tuesday, August 21st, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the different county offices, completed its labors on Thursday, August 23d, and in many respects the convention was one of the most important ever held in Los Angeles county. While it is undoubtedly true that the machine controlled a great majority of the nominations, still the men that were nominated are about the best set of nominees that ever came out of a machine convention in Los Angeles county; and some mighty bad candidates were turned down cold, notably in the case of G. A. Gibbs for superior judge. The "gang" had Gibbs slated for the nomination, but when they were given reliable information as to Gibbs' attitude in regard to the water question in the San Fernando Valley, and when the delegates read the history of this unjust case, as published in a special convention number of the GLENDALE NEWS, they scratched Gibbs' name from the "slate" and substituted Houser. The nomination of such men as Hammel for sheriff, Keppel for superintendent of schools, Dow for auditor, Fredricks for district attorney, Logan for recorder, Bryson for administrator and other good men, reflect great credit upon the intelligence and integrity of the delegates, and no matter what may be said in criticism of Walter Parker as being a boss who works for the interest of the Southern Pacific railroad, the fact still remains that many good, honest and capable men were nominated, no matter who dictated the nominations.

On Tuesday, resolutions commending the course of U. S. Senator Frank P. Flint, Congressman James H. McLachlin and Governor Pardee were read before the convention and except in the case of the governor received the unanimous endorsement of the convention amid hearty applause. The governor,s commendation received a "frost"

C. F. Parker was elected state delegate from the district convention which was held at San Fernando last week.

J. C. Sherer was re-elected congressional committeeman from Glendale.

Wilmot Parcher was elected county committeeman from Glendale at the Venice convention.

This Paper is a Member of the Los Angeles County Press Association.

The GLENDALE NEWS extends sincere congratulations to the people of the San Fernando valley upon the defeat of Judge G. A. Gibbs for the nomination as superior judge. The defeat of Gibbs, who was strongly backed by the water gang of Los Angeles, is an evidence of what the people can do when they become thoroughly aroused and get out and fight for their rights. The next thing in order is the exposing of the underhanded work of Mulholland, and when this is done the people of Los Angeles will awaken to the fact that some of the city's "misrepresentatives" are making a lot of unnecessary trouble and expense for the city, and then will the taxpayers "give the devils their due."

ED. GLENDALE NEWS:—Referring to a communication appearing in your columns from P. R. Ogress suggesting the opening of the reading room evenings, I would like to say that the ladies of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, under whose auspices the room is conducted, have hoped since the inauguration of the undertaking six months ago, to be able to open the room at night; but as it is attended by those who give their services and there is no money for paying an attendant, this can not be done at present. However, Mrs. J. C. Sherer has very generously offered to be at the room every Friday from three until ten o'clock, which is a very gratifying beginning.

I will also state that at the last meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, the matter of having the room open at night was discussed and a committee appointed, with Mrs. Sherer as chairman, to devise ways and means of accomplishing this end. Meanwhile, Mrs. Sherer will be at the room on Fridays as stated, and it is the hope of the library board that the usefulness of the room may be soon extended. It is gratifying to those having the matter in charge to know that people are interested and suggesting ideas along this line.

UP-TO-DATE DRUG STORE FOR GLENDALE.

Mr. J. E. Johnson of Riverside purchased Wright's drug store the early part of this week. Mr. Johnson is an experienced druggist and a registered pharmacist and comes well recommended from his former home. Mr. Johnson will move his family here and make Glendale his home. Mr. Johnson will put in a complete new line of drugs, toilet articles, etc., and make his store first-class in every respect. This change is a most important one to the people of Glendale, as there is great need of a first-class drug store. The store will be called the Glendale Pharmacy and the business will be conducted at its present location next door to the Bank of Glendale, corner Third and Glendale avenue.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES

The M. E. Sunday School and their friends held a picnic at East Lake Park Wednesday last.

The date for the dedication of our church is fixed for Sept. 16.

Eleven persons united with the church and four children were baptised last Sabbath morning.

We are assured by Mr. Seaman that the lighting of the church will be completed in a week.

The Epworth League is doing finely. It meets next Sunday evening with the young people in the Presbyterian church.

Our Sunday School is growing splendidly. Have an average attendance of about 120 during the hot weather.

Rev. and Mrs. Hall have taken a window in the church in memory of Miss Anna Stone, the sweet singing Chinese girl who lately passed away from her home among her people where she was working as a missionary.

The W. C. T. U. of Glendale have secured one of the sections of the large window to the memory of Fnances Willard.

The parsonage folks are happy on the return of Mrs. Norton from Manhattan Beach where she has been spending the past two weeks.

The prayer meetings on Thursday evenings are being well attended. The singing is made a special feature of the services. You are invited to come and bring your bibles. Meeting from 7:30 to 8.30.

Our church and Sunday school regret very much the loss of Brother and Sister Suit who have moved to Pomona. They are splendid church workers.

MONEY WELL SPENT.

Elsewhere in this issue of the News will be found an advertisement of the International Correspondence School, which is represented by Chas. C. Fuller of 9 North Fair Oaks avenue, Pasadena, California. This institution has a world-wide reputation for its good work in educating young people who have to work during the day. There are many bright young men and women in Glendale and the San Fernando Valley who should take advantage of this opportunity to gain a better education and any who may be interested should write Mr. Fuller and obtain full particulars regarding the courses of instruction, the price of tuition, etc. Some of our young people would do well to save some of the money they spend foolishly and spend it for an education—it will be money well spent.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Born, August 23rd, to Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Quick, a son. Mother and child doing well.

Miss Edna Wenger, of Saint Cloud Minnesota, sister to Jared Wenger of the Glendale Hardware Co., arrived in Glendale this (Saturday) morning. Miss Wenger will make an extended visit with her brother.

The Rev. Moses Bercovitz, who has charge of the Jewish work of the Presbyterian church on this coast, and who is himself a converted Jew will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning.

Mrs. M. E. Harn returned Saturday last from Newport Hot Springs where she has been trying the mud baths for rheumatism. Mrs. Harns thinks she is somewhat benefitted from use of the baths and drinking the mineral water.

Hurtt & Rogers report the sale of the restaurant on 4th and Glendale from A. Rapp to J. Whittington. Also a house and one acre of land on A street near 9th street, from John Kaffenberger to Mary Sanborn, consideration $3000.

Mrs. I. C. Strong has rented a part of the new Weiner Glendale Ave. building where she will have on sale for a few days only, the remainder of her notion and stationery store. Prices will be low enough to make quick sales. Call soon.

Mr. Gustav Schwemer has returned from the east where he has been for some time. Mr. Schwemer while east secured the right for Southern California of a new patent window awning. This awning is one of the best and most convenient arrangements of its kind that we have ever seen, and we predict that Mr. Schwemer will meet with great success in the sale of this very necessary article.

Randolph H. Stracey died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Bidwell on Thursday morning Aug. 23. Mr. Stracey had been stopping at Mr. Bidwell's for some time and had been in very poor health previous to his death. Mr. Stracey was a native of England and a cablegram was sent his relatives there asking as to the disposition of the remains. Mr. Stracey formerly lived in West Glendale and was well known in this community.

On Saturday night, Aug. 18, while Mr. and Mrs. Stockbridge were away from home, some one entered their residence on Lomita Avenue and took a number of Indian rugs, a fine dress worth $100, a dress suit, two or three toilet sets, some music and various other articles, and seemingly the party or parties made a bluff at burning the house as paper saturated with kerosene, and burnt matches were found scattered over the house. The strange part of this sensational robbery was enacted Monday night, for on Tuesday morning the stolen articles were found on Mr. Stockbridge's front porch.

J. F. McIntyre, accompanied by his brother Fred and sister Annie, took a three days automobile trip to Riverside, Redlands, San Bernardino and the country surrounding those places. The trip was made in Mr. McIntyre's Reo and a delightful time was had and the party saw many interesting sights. The entire trip was made without a mishap or an accident and Mr. McIntyre's machine did not give him a bit of trouble and this is considered a very good record for the machine as the party travelled over three hundred miles.

Elmer Francis, son of F. Francis a local painter of West Glendale was seriously injured Monday noon by being kicked by a horse on his father's ranch. The boy was struck just above the left ear sustaining a fractured skull. Dr. Bryant was summoned and took the boy to the California hospital. The trip was made in an auto which was kindly offered by Mr. C. G. Wilkinson. An operation was performed and at last report the boy is doing very nicely.

LOS ANGELES ROBBERY OF THE SAN FERNANDO VALLEY RANCHMEN.

Again I am compelled to lift my voice in behalf of the ranchmen of the San Fernando Valley, and incidentally in behalf of all those people living in the immediate vicinity of Los Angeles, especially those people who live on ground from which water would naturally run down hill toward the Angel City that seems to a certain extent to be inhabited by devils instead of angels. And if you will stir up your thinkery slightly, the fact will be recalled that I have spoken on this subject before. I speak again, for the reason that people seem to be apathetic about the matter, and do not realize that what the city of Los Angeles has done to the beautiful San Fernando Valley, she can with equal justice—and no more or less—do to this beautiful valley. The Los Angeles Express of Wednesday lifts up its voice on this subject, and among other things says:

"Ranchers in the San Fernando Valley may plant their crops this fall without the assurance of water sufficient to insure harvests next spring. At the present rate of consumption by Los Angeles there will not be enough water for the city and the settlers next year unless there should be an exceptionally heavy rainfall. By the ruling of the courts Los Angeles has the first right to the waters of the San Fernando Valley."

And I want to say to Mr. Mulholland that if he succeeds in stopping the ranchmen's pumps, his water shortage will be far greater than that which he claims, but which in reality does not exist. If Los Angeles is so terribly short of water, why does this water superintendent not start up some of the pumping plants that are lying idle on the city's holdings and rusting out for the want of use and a little lubricating oil; and also, incidentally, run those that are in operation to their full limit. Bah! The robbery is so barefaced that it makes my feathers fairly creep with indignation. And he "fills" those city papers, claiming to be so "enterprising," yet they do not send out their private detectives and "sleuths" to learn the real facts in the case. The Express says further:

"William Mulholland, water superintendent, believes that the ranchers should know the true conditions; that they should be warned in time and of what they may expect next year. The decree of the courts requires that no warning be given. The city may order the stopping of private pumping when its own necessities demand such a proceedure."

If the "decree of the court requires that no warning be given," as alleged by the Express, then all I have to say it that it is a very rare brand of "justice" that is dealt out by the court. Another paragraph says:

"It is expected that the water board, at as pecial meeting or at the regular session next Monday, will adopt resolutions setting forth the conditions as they exist."

Now I want to wager some of my best pin feathers that the water board will not, at a special or other meeting, "adopt resolutions setting forth conditions as they exist." They may "adopt resolutions," but they dare not tell the truth as it exists. If they did, they would be "giving the snap away," and that would never do. If they told the real truth, they would tell the people that the ranchers of the valley are augmenting the supply of water for the city of Los Angeles by every stroke of their pumps; they would tell the people that the city has sufficient water already developed to supply a far greater amount of water than the present population of the city could consume; yes, they would tell the people that SUFFICIENT WATER COULD BE PUMPED FROM THE CITY'S WELLS AND LANDS TO PERMIT, OF EVERY HYDRANT IN THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES RUNNING WIDE OPEN—TO THE FULL WIDTH—EVERY HOUR OF THE TWENTY-FOUR, DURING EVERY DAY OF EVERY MONTH OF THE YEAR. AND THAT IF THEIR PUMPS WERE SUFFICIENTLY POWERFUL, THEY COULD WITH THIS WASTE, KEEP THEIR RESERVOIRS RUNNING OVER ALL THE TIME. I say it is a burning shame that the people of this beautiful Southern Sunland do not investigate this matter for themselves and learn the exact facts in the case. The Express says further:

"It was announced today that the city is consuming its storage supply of water at the rate of more than 3,000,000 gallons every twenty-four hours. This has been going on since Sunday. At this rate the entire storage supply will be exhausted at the expiration of thirty days. More than 125 ranchers in the San Fernando Valley are pumping water. The consumption there ranges from 8,000,000 to 11,000,000 gallons a day. This, Mulholland says, is sufficient to supply an increase of 150,000 in the population of the city."

And I want to say in reply to that, that the ranchers are pumping water that never could find its way into the Los Angeles river if it were not first pumped out of the vast reservoir beneath the valley; that it is separated from the river bed by impervious clay strata that would tell any person who ever handled and developed water even a little bit that the waters of the Los Angeles river have no connection with this underground reservoir. And as before said, every gallon of water pumped out by the ranchmen, adds its percentage to the surface flow of the river. How in the name of common horse sense, or even uncommon goose sense, do the wise-acres of Los Angeles suppose that the waters of that reservoir are going to rise in a perpendicular line several hundred feet, pierce several thick strata of clay and get into the Los Angeles river? Can Mr. Mulholland figure this out to his own satisfaction, or the satisfaction of his bosses? I think not. Water will not run up hill unless confined and forced. And while the windjammers of Los Angeles might furnish the force they can not confine the waters. Another paragraph:

"We expected this spell of hot weather and Saturday night at 12 o'clock every reservoir in the city was filled," said Mr. Mulholland today. "With the rise in temperature the pumping plants have been unable to suply the demands made upon them and we have had to draw on our reserve at the rate of more than 3,000,000 gallons a day. The daily flow of water from the wells is being exceeded by the demands made upon them."

Evidently the gentleman is better at prophesying hot waves than he is at truthfully diagnosing the water situation, if he anticipated the warm spell. And it was real considerate of him to lay in a few extra gallons of water to talk about. Again:

"With our storage supply of more than 90,000,000 gallons we have on hand water sufficient to last for thirty days, but not longer than that. It would be without precedent for the heat to continue that long and we are not fearing water famine. However, we are standing too near the edge for comfort."

No, we all know you are "not fearing water famine." That is, all who know the real situation. And Mr. Mulholland knows the truth if he has the wit an ordinary baby is born with, but it is not to his advantage to acknowledge it. It would never do to admit the truth of the situation. Another brief one:

"It is evident that soon we will have increased demands upon the water in the San Fernando Valley and a warning to settlers at this time is the proper thing to do."

Yess, Jesso! Looks like they are trying to prepare the way for the serving of their injunction. But there are ways out of that, as the city will find. After giving a couple of unimportant paragraphs about the consumption of water in the city, Mr. Mulholland further says:

"Our main supply comes from the San Fernando valley, through its outflow, the Los Angeles river. It takes all we can get from there to supply the demand. That is, we get 38,000,000 gallons a day from there and we use it as soon as it can be pumped. Our only other source of supply is a few wells in the south part of the city. These furnished a little more than 2,000,000 gallons every twenty-four hours. This suffices to stock our storage reservoirs."

"Still harping upon my daughter," as it were. "Our main supply comes from the San Fernando Valley, through its outflow, the Los Angeles river," is good, if it would "hold water," which it will not! And if Mr. Mulholland knows anything at all about water he knows the Los Angeles river is not the natural outflow of any of the waters being pumped by the ranchmen of the valley. And when he says "it takes all we can get from there to supply the demand," he deliberately tells that which is not true, as can be proven by any person who will take the trouble to visit the city's pumping works and see for themselves.

In light of the actions of the city of Los Angeles in this San Fernando Valley matter it is little wonder that people everywhere are afraid of the Owens river scheme as handled by them. All will admit that the bringing of the Owens river to this part of the country would be a boon to the country if it could be handled by honest men and not by thieves. But when they see a powerful city attempting to rob a community of its God-given water rights, because it can handle courts and men who pose as water experts, they naturally fear to enter into any business combination with the city for such a purpose, even to the extent of getting a frog pond! Out upon courts and laws that will rob honest men of their homes and lands for the purpose of giving them to other and possibly stronger men! It is an outrage on human decency and should be sanctioned by no human being who believes in the least portion of the Golden Rule that is held up as a pattern by you human people! Put yourself in the place of those ranchmen who by hard and almost incessant toil for years have built up their homes and brought up their families only to be despoiled of them by a set of grasping, treacherous and dishonest grafters who pervert the law to their own purposes, and clad in the borrowed garb of justice steal their very lives from them! Would YOU stand for it without making the fight of your life I tell you, people, it is up to the people of Southern California to reach out a helping hand to this honest community of toilers and see to it that they are NOT robbed of that which rightfully belongs to them.

If a single one of these people lay wounded unto death in your streets, willing and loving hands would be immediately extended to him and every effort made to succor him. And you would be right. But the case is far more serious than if a single individual were thus put upon. An entire community, consisting of hundreds of happy families and homes, is threatened by this monstrous and outrageous piece of highway robbery that should demand your immediate attention! Delay is dangerous at all times. And now that the threat of serving injunctions has been given out, it is time to act! Will not loyal old Pasadena be the first to go to the rescue of this community? Will we not "throw out the life line" to our suffering neighbors? Let us be up and doing, and show the world that Pasadena stands for the right in all things! The fight is an unequal one. And while the people of that valley have not asked for help, you know, and I know they need it. You would need it were you in their place. In the name of common humanity, let us do something for them, ere it is too late!—Pasadena Roadrunner.

Delightful Entertainment by Lomita Dramatic Club.

The entertainment given at Masonic Hall on Monday evening, August 20th, by the Lomita Dramatic Club was well attended and the production well merited the patronage that was accorded it. The house was full, and if all who purchased tickets had have turned out there would have been "standing room only."

All of the members of the company acquitted themselves most creditably and some of those who had the lighter comedy parts kept the audience laughing from beginning to finish of the program

The music by Mrs. Hunt, Mr. Clarence Peck and Mrs. C. Sternberg was one of the very delightful features of the evening.

Mrs. S. D. Eley had the management of this delightful entertainment and all credit is due her and her able assistants for their untiring efforts in making the affair one of the most successful and altogether enjoyable events that has ever transpired in Glendale. The comedy will be repeated on Saturday evening, August 25th, at Masonic Hall.

Can't Injure A Good Man

The Governor of Missouri works himself more securely into the confidenece of thinking people with every step he takes. The hostility of the professional politicians of his own state is not a drawback but a tribute. When, some weeks ago, a county convention at the State capital refrained from endorsing his administration, which would have followed custom, the politicans failed to injure the Governor and only revealed themselves, when, instead, these gentlemen passed a resolution approving "the record and respective administrations of the Democratic Party from 1873 to 1906 inclusive "they rendered themselves incredibly ridiculous. To Governor Folk is it due in large part that we know how rediculous such an allegation is. His head is clear his conrage is good, and nothing so far has checked his sure-footed progress along the line marked out for him by a sane mind and an honest heart. The punishment of those six boodlers who went to prison gave him no satisfaction because the individuals suffered. He thought some of them less guilty than others who could not be caught, and some of the six have the friendliest feelings for him now. It was the protection of the public that he had in mind then, and has had in every step that he has taken since. His record as Governor has had none of the sensational interest that he aroused as Circuit Attorney, but it has brought out not only the same qualities, but the ability to deal wisely with new problems as they arise. It is no wonder, then, that the politicans of his State dislike him as they ever did, and always will.—Collier's Weekly.

Wonders of Advertising

It Has Been Developed Marvelously In Modern Times

Among the many marvels of this age, there is none more striking and none more characteristic than the art of advertising as developed in modern times. We talk much about the wonders of the telephone and the phonograph, about the astonishing expansion of railroads and telegraphy, but here we have an industry as remarkable for its extension and as wide and varied in its application as anything of man's device in any era of the world's history. When there is brought into consideration the amount of good money expended in advertising in our day, the novel and ingenious methods employed and the expert skill and artistic talent engaged in the business, one may begin to realize what a wide field has been opened here for some of the highest and most useful forms of human endeavor. With all its abuses—and they are not a few—it remains true that advertising is one of the greatest popular educators, and one of the chief promoters of human happiness and prosperity. And there are yet many ways in which it may be extended to the still greater benefit of the world. No good reason exists why the church, the Sunday schools, the missionary societies and other agencies of good should not advertise far more than they do, and thus add to their membership and their power in the community. To set their advantages, aims and benefits before the public in the proper way and form would involve no loss of dignity or prestige, while it would almost certainly widen their influence. The time must come, too, when the absurd code which prohibits physicians and other professional classes from advertising must be abolished. There is nothing but a sentiment to prevent it, and a very weak sentiment at that. It should be no more infradig for a physican or a lawyer to seek patients or clients through the medium of print, than it is for teachers, insurance men, real-estate dealers or the members of any other trade or calling.

Very Good

Whenever a man comes in Compton with the intention of starting some new enterprise, some one will get hold of him and steer him around to a few of the business men, but invariably stay clear of the newspaper office. Then the editor is asked why he said nothing about it. And when the steerer is asked, his answer is, "Why we did not want it known nntil the thing was settled;" at the same time hawking it around to Tom, Dick and Harry." Come out, gentlemen, from the brush, and if you have a good thing you will not be ashamed for the public to know about it.—Compton Enterprise.
